

INFLUENTIAL

MUSLIM AMERICAN FIGURES

A close-up portrait of Ilhan Omar, a woman with dark skin and a black headscarf, looking upwards and to the left. The image is partially obscured by torn paper effects at the top and right edges.

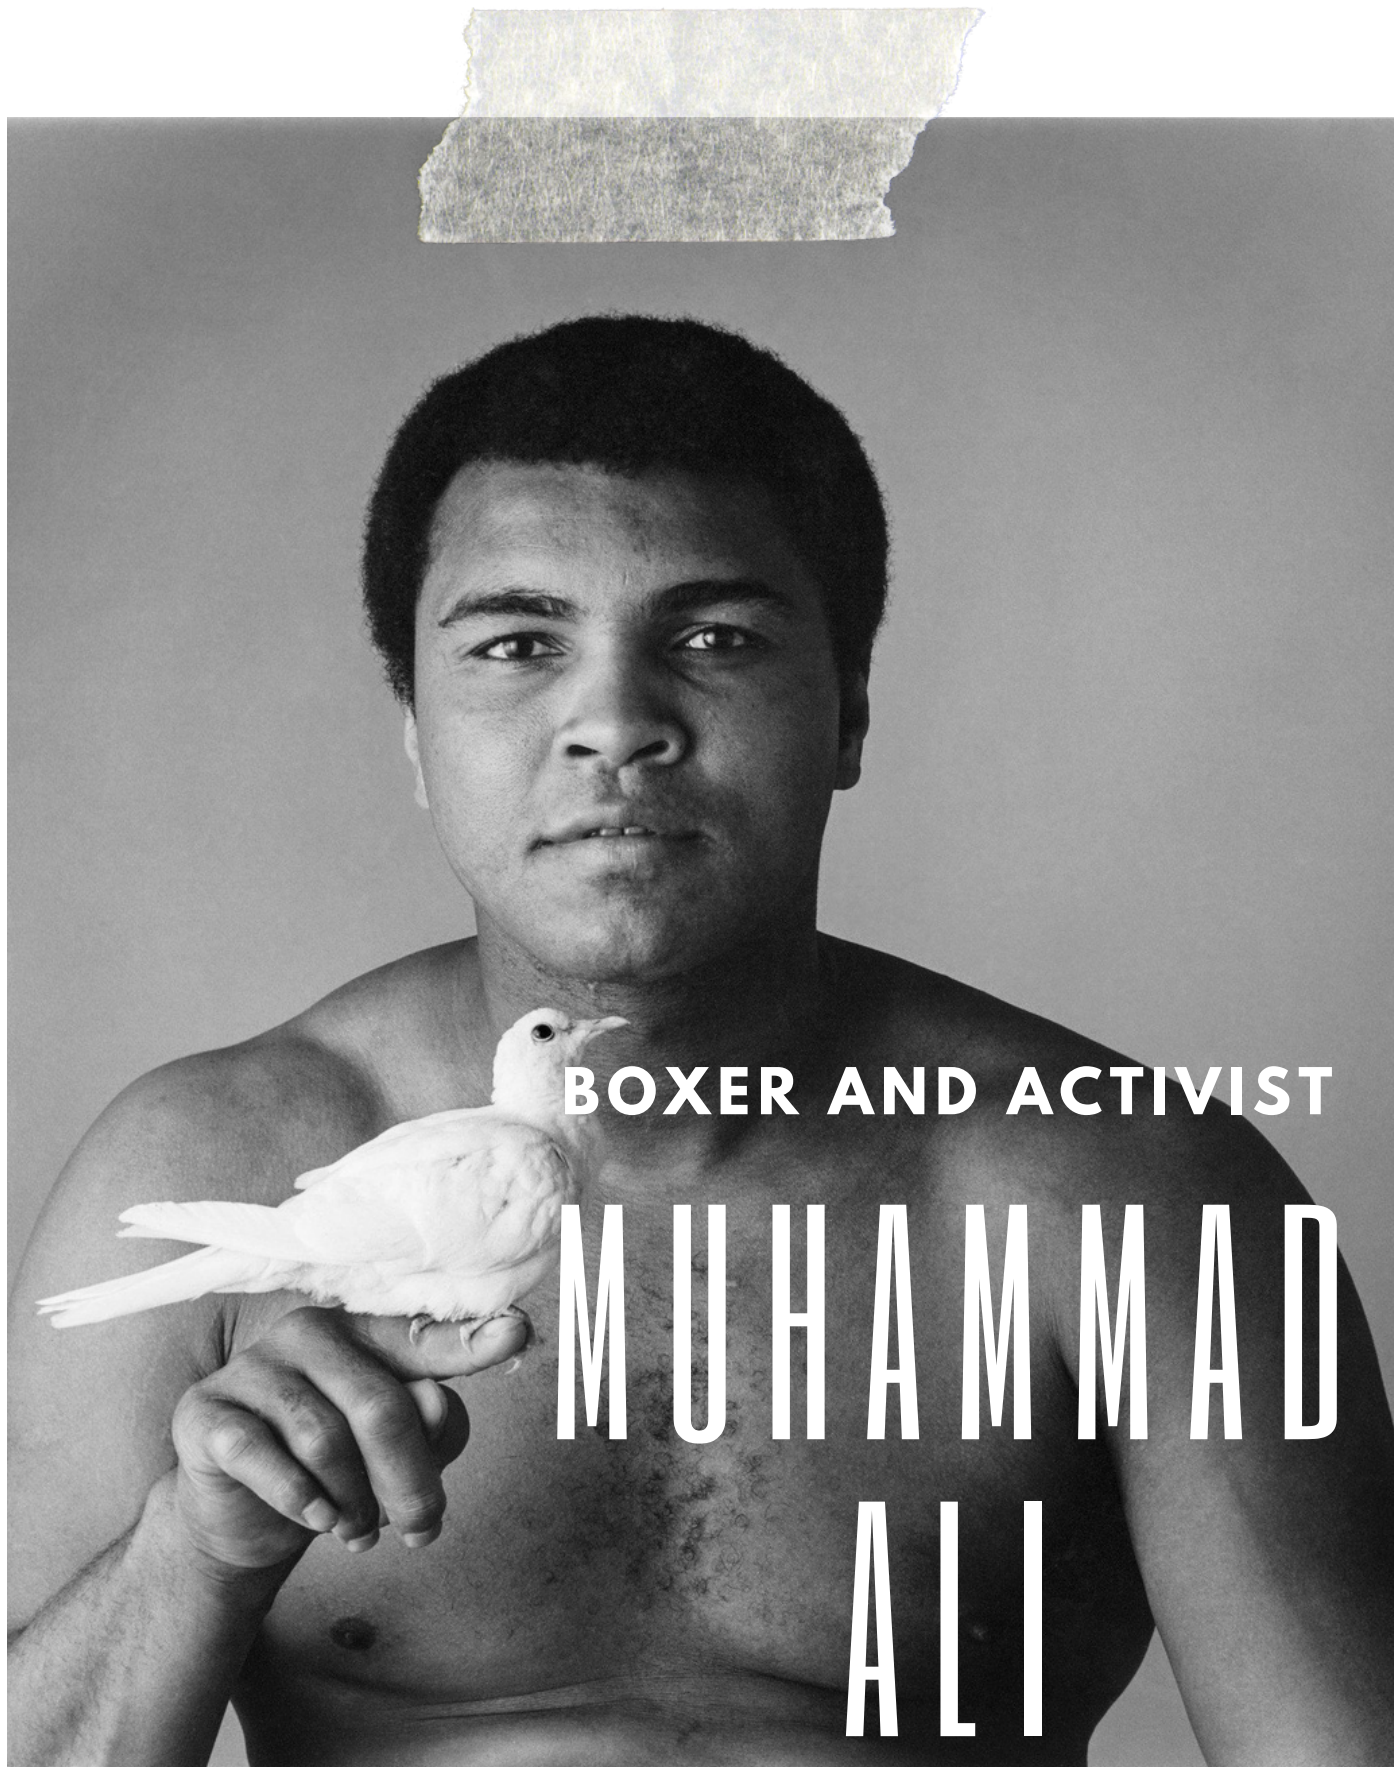

US REPRESENTATIVE

ILHAN OMAR

A background image of green foliage, possibly leaves, with a white text box overlaid.

Representative Ilhan Omar serves the 5th Congressional District in Minnesota. She is the first Somali-American to be elected into Congress. She provides a image of hope for her community and rises above the hate she has received from the current administration by saying, " I did not run for Congress to be silent...No one person- no matter how corrupt, inept, or vicious-can threaten my unwavering love for America."

Ilhan Omar, Twitter 2018

World renowned boxer Muhammad Ali, previously Cassius Clay before joining the Nation of Islam, used his platform for numerous humanitarian efforts. He also co-founded the Ali Center and lived his life with six core principles: confidence, conviction, dedication, giving, respect, and spirituality.

The Ali Center, 2017

FOUNDER AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

DAISY KHAN

Daisy Khan's life work is centered around dispelling the false narratives centered around Islam and extremism. She is the author of "Born With Wings: The Spiritual Journey of a Modern Muslim Women" and is the founder of WISE, the Women's Islamic Initiative in Spirituality and Equality.

A portrait of Malala Yousafzai, a young woman with dark hair, wearing a red and black patterned headscarf. She is looking slightly to the right with a calm expression. The background is blurred, showing other people in blue shirts. The image is framed with torn paper edges at the top and right.

NOBEL PEACE PRIZE WINNER

MALALA
YOUSAFZAI

A white rectangular text box with a black border, set against a background of green leaves. The text is in a black serif font.

Malala Yousafzai's journey as an activism came from her outspoken beliefs on women and education. Attempts to silence her led to an attack where she was shot, and ultimately led to Pakistan's first education bill. She created the Malala Fund and received the Nobel Peace Prize in 2014.

WiseUp, 2018

WISEUP

Knowledge Ends Extremism

Daisy Khan

Executive Editor

Women's Islamic Initiative in Spirituality &
Equality

In this collective body of work, Khan as executive editor and 72 collaborators developed WISEUp: Knowledge Ends Extremism. In it lies a collective of anecdotal stories, historical context, and research on the experiences of Muslims in the US and Islam Theology. Ultimately, it works to dispel misconceptions about Islam, extremism and is center around community.

<http://wisemuslimwomen.org/>

Please Support

BOULDER

MUSLIM STUDENT ASSOCIATION

<https://m.facebook.com/MSACUBoulder/>

<https://twitter.com/MSACUBoulder?s=17>

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S BIAS AND HATE HOTLINE

303-441-1595

"The Boulder District Attorney's Office has created a hotline designated for members of our community to report hate or bias-motivated crimes."